Thanks – Mo's website is a good model for what I'd like to offer to future clients. The prettier and more effective we make Mo's website, the more others will want what we have. Nothing prevents me from sub-contracting the work to websites hosted in Amsterdam, Aruba, Kenya and the Ukraine if we're concerned about lawsuits or retaliation.

I'll just pay and get reimbursement, it's okay and easiest.

Please introduce me and/or have them invoice me directly. OR, if you wish, you can pay and I can cut a check – whatever works best for you.
